Explanatory note / Avant-propos

This bibliography consists mainly of material found in the Main Library and the Legal Library of the External Affairs and International Trade Canada. Any call numbers cited pertain to these libraries.

Several new sections have been added in the 5th edition to accommodate the large volume of material. Although some citations which are relevant to two different sections have been entered in both for convenience, the reader is advised to check all categories of interest to get full coverage on a research topic, especially if the topic does not correspond closely with any of the categories used in the bibliography. At the beginning of some sections there are cross-references to other sections with a similar or related content.

Sections 2, 3, 4 and 6 contain general discussions of free trade as well as works which deal with multiple facets of the subject; most of these works focus on political, economic or business aspects of free trade. These four sections also contain titles on topics of a more specific nature for which there are no separate sections in the bibliography e.g. the Free Trade negotiations. Subsequent sections list works dealing with more specific aspects of free trade such as the legal, cultural, or regional aspects.

Section 6 includes most of the general works on Free Trade published before 1984. However, a few pre-1984 items on specific topics are listed in the pertinent sections to keep related material together as much as possible. Section 11 contains all material on the history of the debate on free trade regardless of its date of publication.

Cette bibliographie rassemble principalement des ouvrages qui se trouvent aux bibliothèques principale et juridique des Affaires extérieures et Commerce extérieur Canada. Les cotes de classification dans la bibliographie réfèrent aux bibliothèques mentionnées ci-dessus.

La 5e édition comprend plusieurs nouvelles vedettes qui simplifieront la lecture de la bibliographie en divisant le volume grandissant de la documentation portant sur le sujet. Même si quelques citations ont été inscrites dans deux catégories de la bibliographie à cause d'un rapport spécifique avec deux sujets de recherche différents, nous recommandons au lecteur d'examiner toutes les catégories appropriées afin d'assurer une couverture complète d'un sujet qui ne correspond pas exactement avec une des catégories.

Les sections 2, 3, 4 et 6 comprennent les ouvrages qui traitent des aspects politiques, économiques ou commerciaux du libre-échange soit d'une façon générale ou soit en touchant plusieurs facettes du sujet. Ces catégories comprennent aussi les titres portant sur des aspects plus spécifiques pour lesquels des sections séparées n'existent pas. Les titres dans les catégories subséquentes traitent des sujets plus spécifiques, par example les aspects legaux, culturels ou régionaux du libre-échange.

La plupart des ouvrages publiés avant 1984 se trouve dans la section 6. Cependant certains de ceux-ci ayant rapport à des sujets spécifiques sont inscrits dans les sections appropriées afin de rassembler dans la mesure du possible les ouvrages connexes. La section 11 contient toute la documentation portant sur l'histoire du débat sur le libre-échange sans distinction de date de publication.
